

I manifest my goals

by staying focused

and working hard to achieve them.

I easily transcend
all my limiting beliefs or fears to manifest
my desires.

The mundane parts of life are what make me
the happiest

The image features a solid blue background. In the center is a large, vertically-oriented oval with a soft gradient from light pink at the top to bright yellow at the bottom. Overlapping the lower-left side of this central oval is a solid green, teardrop-shaped petal. Another smaller green petal is visible at the very bottom center, partially cut off. The text "I am awake now" is written in a white, sans-serif font across the middle of the yellow and pink area.

I am awake now

A blue and white checkered pattern, resembling a racing flag, is positioned at the top and bottom of the page. The pattern is slightly wavy and has a thin red border around the edges of the squares. The background is a light yellow gradient.

We are perfect, even though the world is not
